

Frederika Tielenius Kruythoff

Frederika Tielenius Kruythoff is Managing Partner and Senior Client Partner in Korn Ferry's Amsterdam office. She is a member of the EMEA Board practice and the Firm's Global Industrial Market and leads the EMEA Chemical as well as Agri practice.

Prior to joining Korn Ferry in 2012, Ms. Tielenius Kruythoff spent over 20 years in the chemical and food ingredient markets in commercial and general management roles.

She joined the HR consultancy after having spent six years with Royal DSM, where her last position was global Commercial based in The Netherlands.

Previously, Ms. Tielenius Kruythoff was with INEOS Asia Pacific based in Shanghai and Singapore, where she set up the INEOS China office. There, she held the positions of managing director Asia Pacific for the phenol and acetone business and general manager Asia Pacific.

Earlier, Ms. Tielenius Kruythoff worked for Unilever (subsequently ICI) in Germany where she was, responsible for the global catalyst business.

Ms. Tielenius Kruythoff began her career with Ciba-Geigy in Italy and Switzerland. During this period, she held global Marketing role in the textile dyes division with a focus on the Asia and North America markets.

Ms. Tielenius Kruythoff holds a Polytechnic business degree. She is fluent in Dutch, English, German and Italian, and has a good understanding of French and Spanish.

Ms. Tielenius Kruythoff is an angel investor in Phycom and food tech start and scale-ups and a board member and treasurer of the Grachten festival organization promoting young musical talent.